FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along a beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him, and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you, and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Life

For yesterday is but a dream
and tomorrow
is only a vision
but today
well lived makes yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.

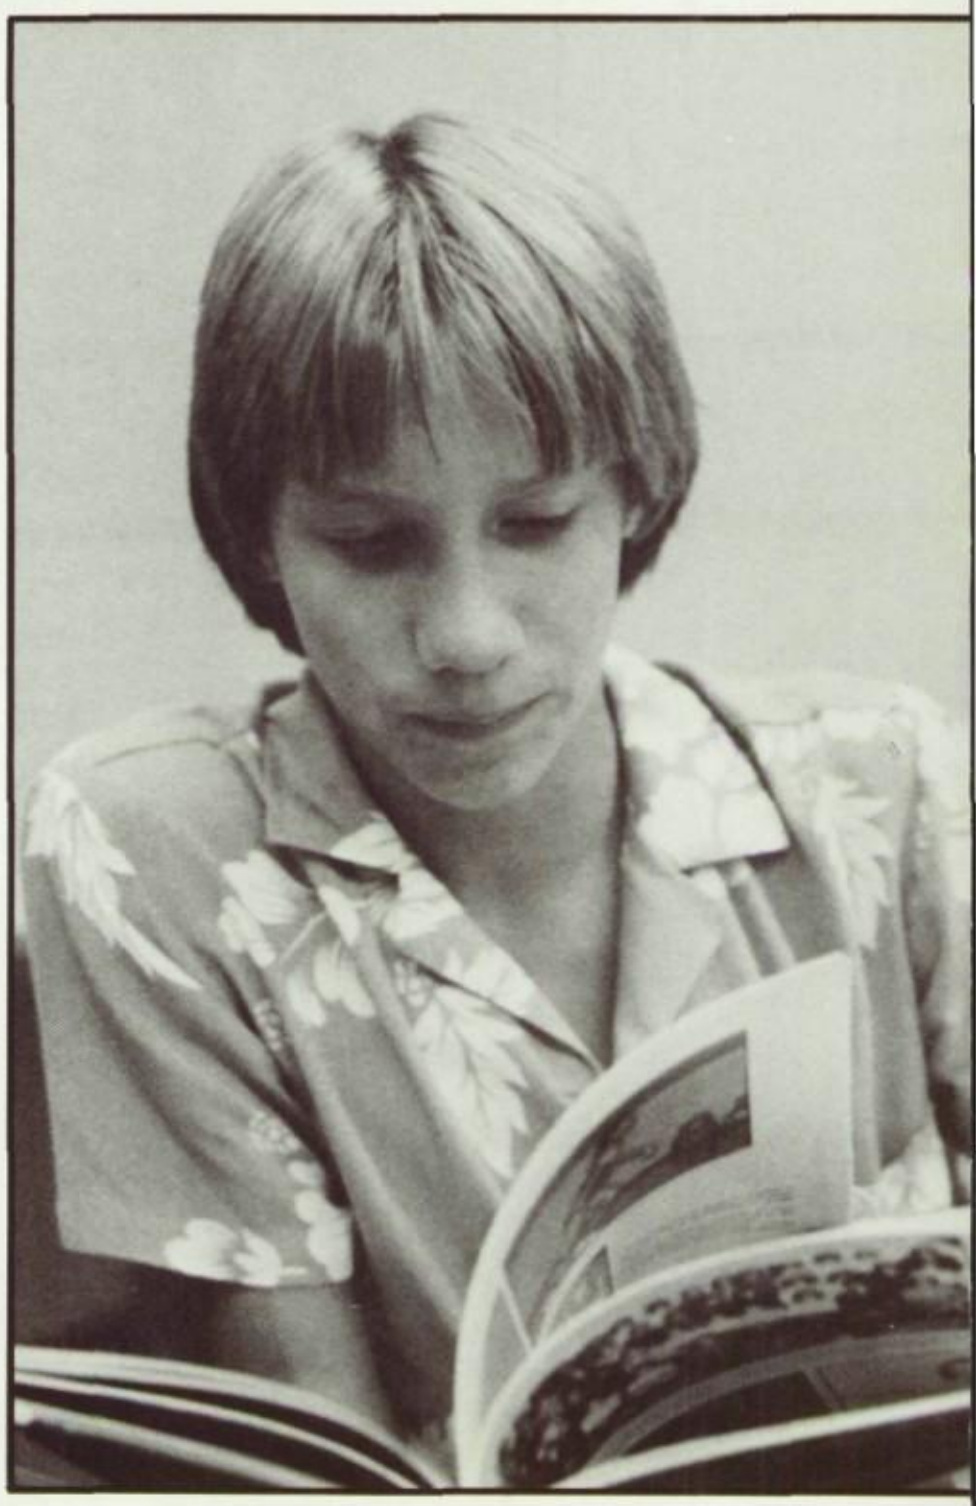
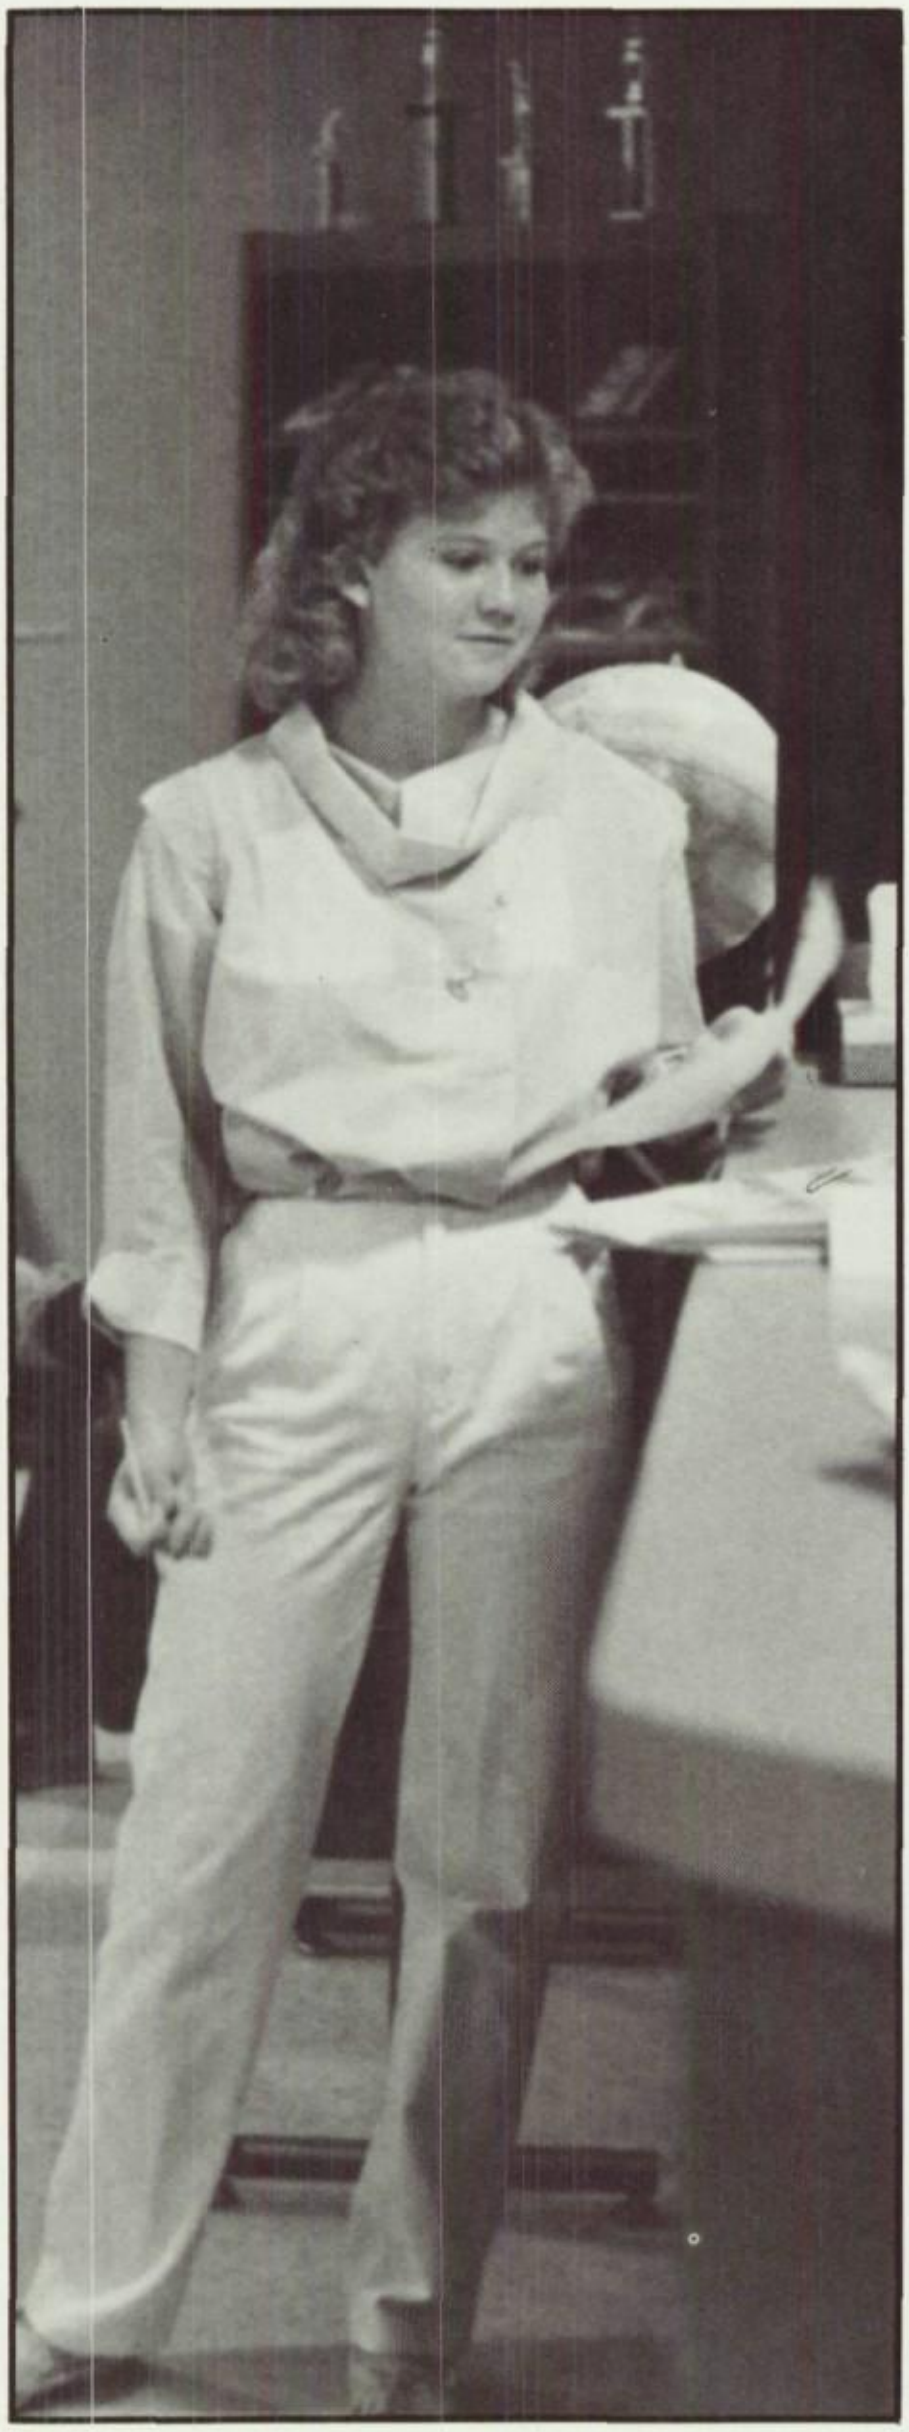
Myself

If I were meant to be like everyone else.
I would never have been given
The gift of thought.
Because to follow the crowd
Takes no thought at all.
-Stacy Mosbrucker





Future

At times I get to thinking
Of where I want to go,
What I want to accomplish-
It's something I must know.
I have to look ahead and see
Just what is in store for me.
The future may be unclear,
But it's something I do not fear.

-author unknown

I still find each day too short for all the thoughts
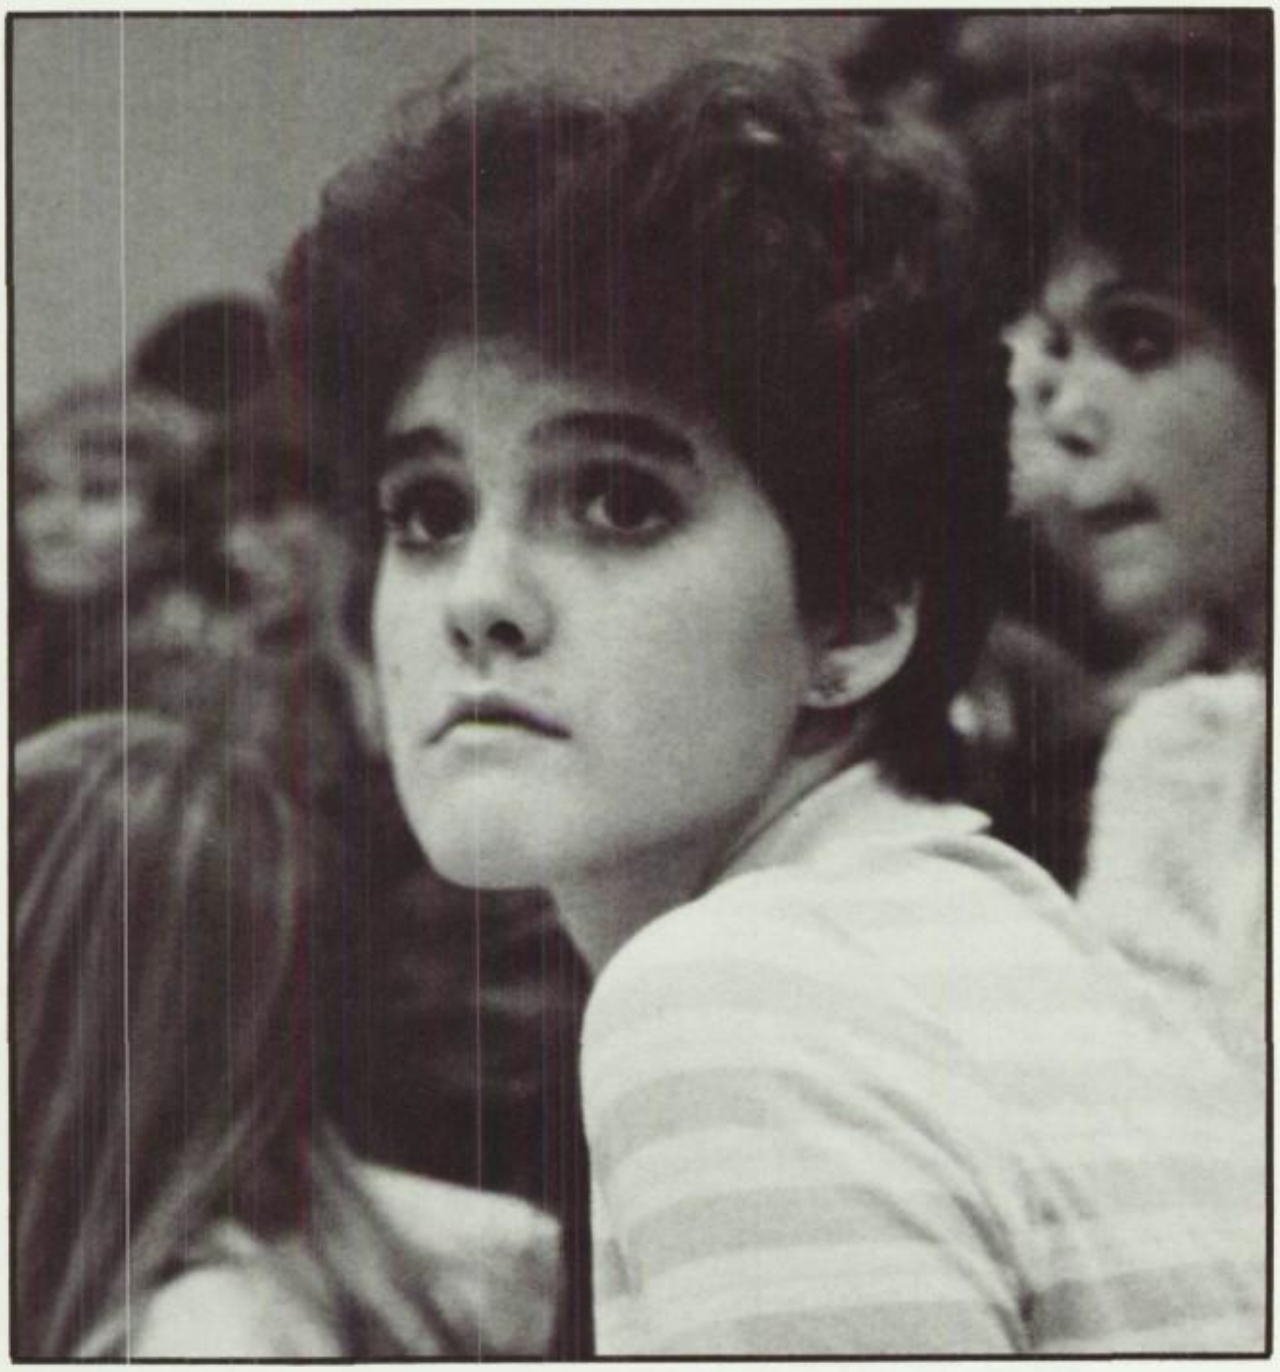
I want to think,
all the walks I want to take,
all the books
I want to read,
and all the friends I want to see.
The longer I live
the more my mind dwells
upon the beauty
and the wonder of the world.

John Burroughs



I used to think love was
Dick and Jane,
Lucy and Schroder,
Raggedy Ann and Andy . . .
Then I thought it was
Romeo and Juliet,
Anthony and Cleopatra,
Tarzan and Jane . . .
Now I wonder if it exists at all.

Carol Renner

The happiest moments of my life have been in the flow of affection among friends.

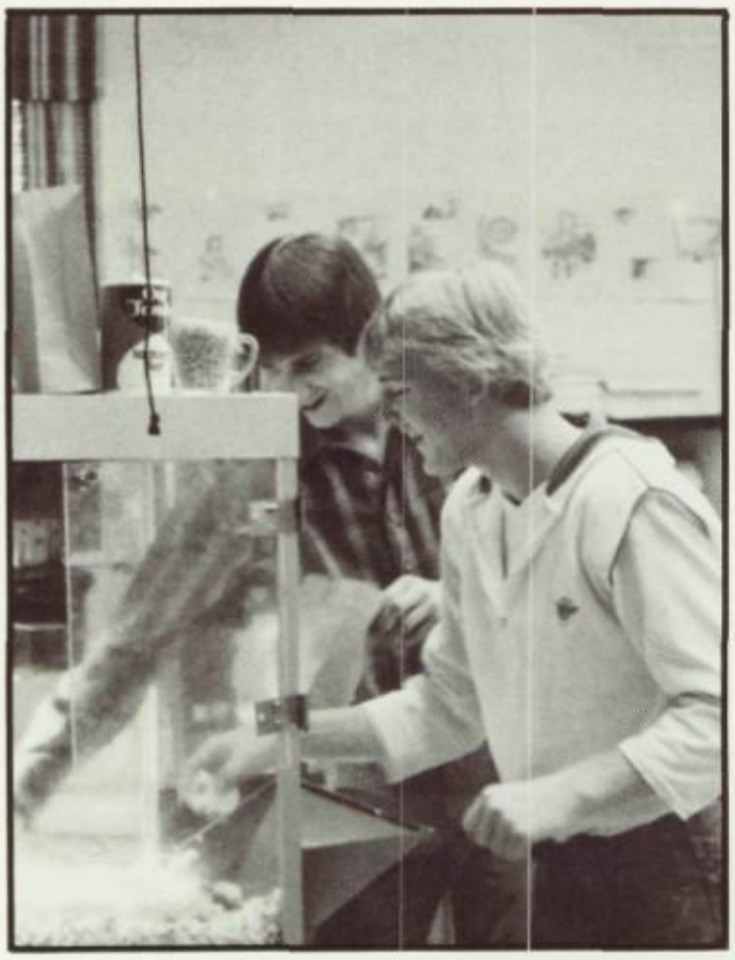
Thomas Jefferson



Me

My feet
Imprint the sand,
Crushing each grain together,
Breaking the steady rhythm
As the salty water fills
The five-toed sculptures.
My very own castles.
Me.
Could anyone dare to Follow my footsteps?

Student Council brings academic change

The Student Council was responsible for the change from a 3.00 to a 4.00 grading system that will become effective for the 1985-1986 school year.

The Student Council had a very active year which included ice cream sales for the grade school and high school students as its fund raiser. They sponsored a dance in March and the annual Easter Egg hunt for grades K-3.

Eating again, Cheryl!

Make sure you finish it all, Candace!

FHA kept the fifty-four members active throughout the year. Their main fund raiser was the variety show. Other fund raising events were a breakfast, selling candy bars and mints, cake raffles, and the T-shirt sale. They also sponsored the mail-a-heart and the Mr. Irristable Contest held was won by Brian Farnsworth. Most of the money was used for the Parents' Banquet. A new project for the year was the adopt-a-grandparent program. They also had a fun night out which was spent bowling and eating pizza. The FHA emblem was painted in the hall outside of the Home Economics room. Six members attended the State Convention in Bismarck. Susan Dukart was elected State President. She attended the National Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah during the summer.

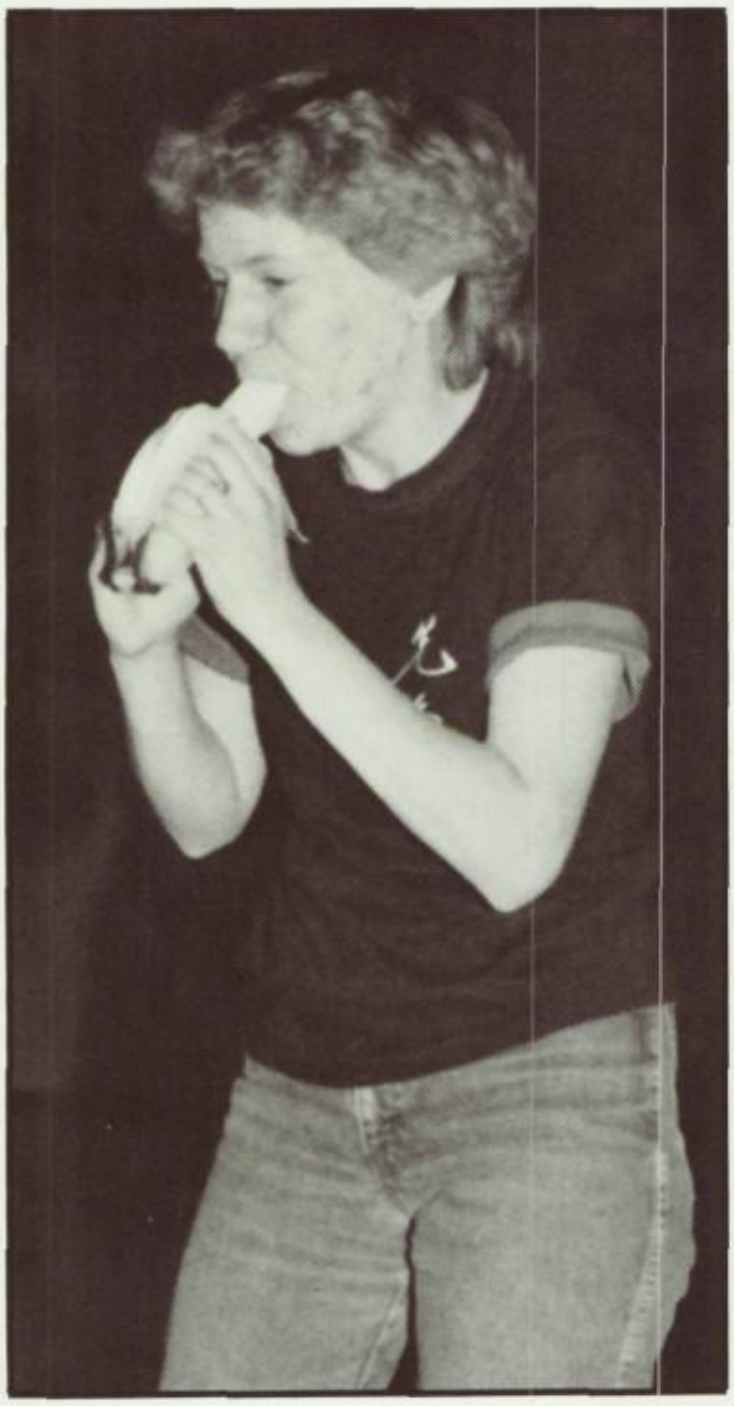
Pep club tells its story

The pep club was very busy this year. The pep club sponsored a mock homecoming in October. Kelly Davis and Tess Rambousek were "crowned" king and queen. It also financed Spring Fling at the end of March, Junior Olympics during April and the skits during the pep rallies. Game nights and the swimming parties were also sponsored.

Fund raising projects were the sales of painter's caps and eagle sweaters.

The mascot for girls' basketball was Sandy Ridl and the mascot for boys' basketball was Rhonda Burns.

The officers elected were President Jackie Rambousek, Vice-President Karen Steffan, Secretary John Chorne, and Treasurer John Perdaems. Mr. and Mrs. Perers were the advisors.



Is it good, Lana?

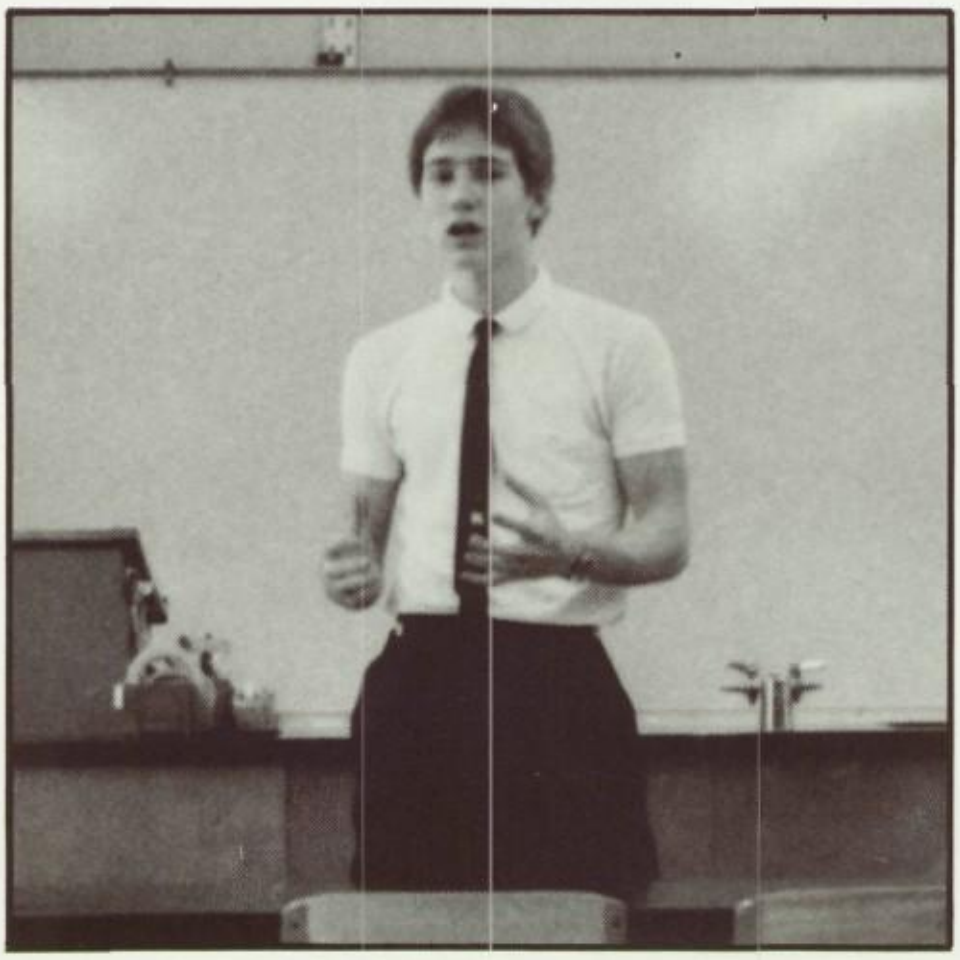
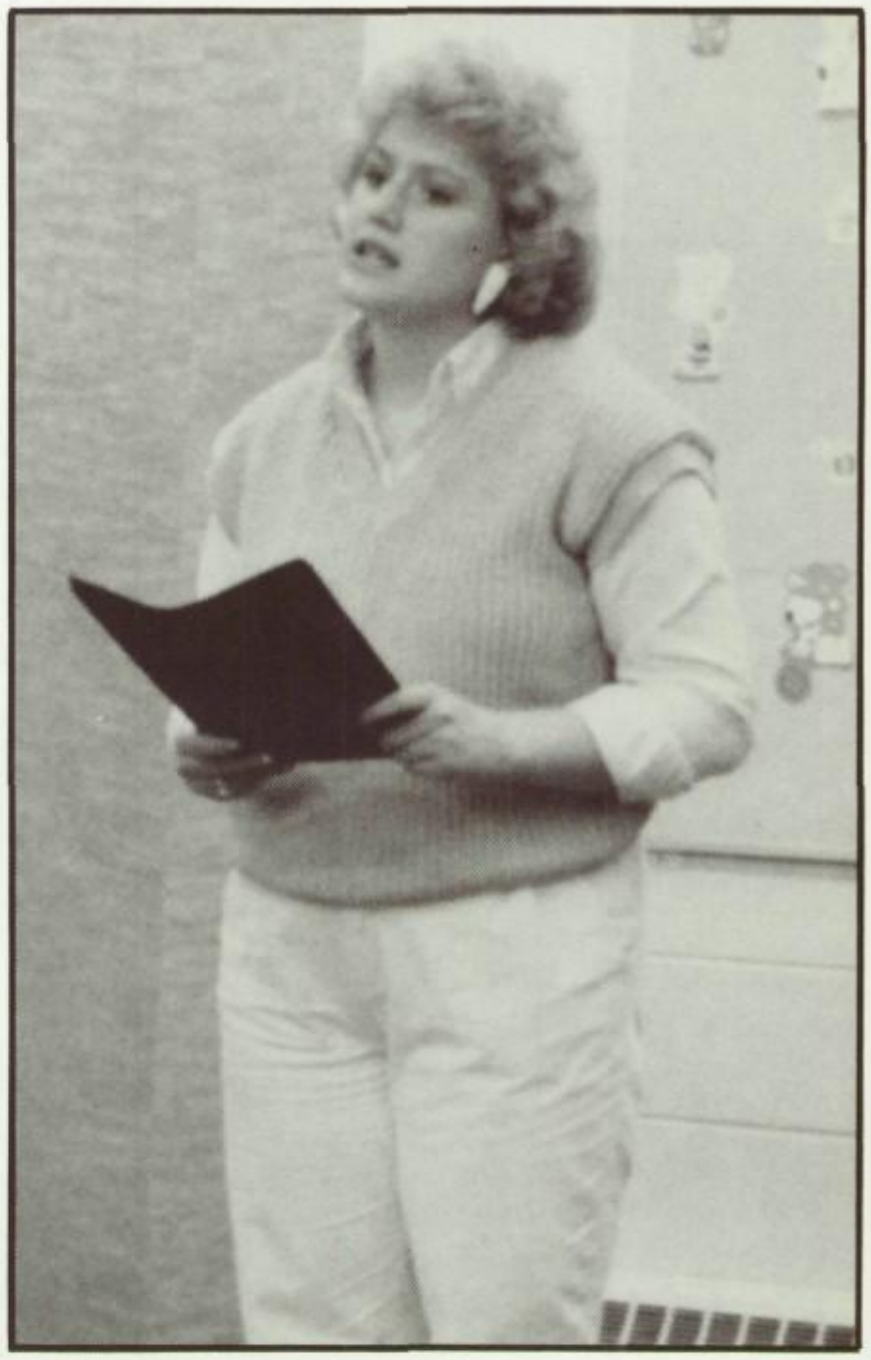
Speech team expresses its opinions



That fish I caught last week was so big!



To be or not to be.

This year Mrs. Holinka advised a speech team consisting of nine members. They attended meets at Trinity, Bowman, Richardton, and DSC. At the I-94 meet at Richardton, Mark Privratsky placed fourth in speech to persuade. JoEllen Volesky and Russ Jablonsky won first in their dramatic duo. Cherry Burns and Sue Meyer won fourth in their dramatic duo. Sue Meyer won first in radio broadcasting, while Mark Schmidt placed third.

At DSC, Regional finalist were Mark Privratsky in speech to inform, JoEllen Volesky and Russ Jablonsky is dramatic duo, and JoEllen Volesky in poetry interpretation. Sue Meyer was awarded Regional first place in radio broadcasting and qualified for the State Meet.

Band blares

The band had a busy and exciting year. They began the year by marching for the DSC Homecoming parade and raised funds by co-sponsoring the Variety Show.

The band performed in three concerts: a fall concert, Christmas concert, and spring concert. The pep band also performed at basketball games.

John Chorne, Scott Eberts, and Donalda Adamski were chosen for the Honor Band in the Northern Plains Music Festival. All band members participated in an I-94 Music Clinic and the District X Music Festival. Two members advanced to the State Music Festival in Jamestown: JoEllen Volesky, piccolo, and Mark Privratsky, alto saxophone.

Choir sings to success

1984-85 was a very special year for the South Heart choir. In addition to the normal concerts and festivals, many choir members represented South Heart High School at honorary events such as the Northern Plains Festival of Music held at DSC, and the All-State Music Festival at UND. The choir did a very fine job at the District X Music Festival, and two groups qualified for state competion. They were Mark Schmidt, vocal solo; and Troy Anderson, Eric Nelson, Mark Privratsky, and Mark Schmidt; boys' quartet. The choir can look back upon a very successful year.

Swing Choir sways

Swing choir tryouts were held at the beginning of the school year. Ten girls and ten boys were selected from the group who auditioned. They performed for many occasions ranging from music festivals and music concerts to the Swing Choir Festival at DSC. This festival included choirs from DSC, Trinity, DHS, and SHHS. They also performed in the variety show.

Miss Seela formed an all girls swing choir this year. They performed in the variety show too. The music department would like to thank Miss Vig for her long hours spent playing the piano for choir and festivals.

In its second season, the cooperative football team of Belfield and South Heart attained a fairly successful record of two wins and six losses. Accomplishments for the team included being rated second in the Badland's Conference for team defense.

Individual achievements included Mike Dorval's selection to the Badland's All Conference Team as linebacker; he was also given an honorable mention as offensive end. Tom Zarak and Mike Dorval were named as United States National Football Award Winners by their coach.

Girls Varsity shoots for victory

The girls varsity team started off the year with high hopes for the new season, but ill luck seemed to follow them to most every game. At the end of the season, they had racked up two wins and fourteen losses. In face of these odds they never lost hope, quoted one of the players, "We just tried to block out the losses and concentrate on the wins." At the end of the season they worked just as hard as they did at the start, earning Coach Mann's praise and thanks for a long and hard season.

Good-Bye

I guess this is . . .
Good-Bye.
To all you seniors,
Who've tried so hard
And fought so many
No matter the score.
We could see determination,
The spirit in your eyes,
The drive to prove you were the best.
Though it didn't work out,
In our hearts you're the greatest.

I guess this is . . .
Good-Bye.
To scenes we've become accustomed.
Susie bringing the ball down
To start it all off.
Sue there to help,
Jumping against the tallest.
Debbie to take the ball
Right to the basket.
And Laurie being in
All places at once.
While Cherry was there
For others to pass to.
This we won't forget
For sometime to come.
You gals were the best,
Win or Lose!

I guess this is . . .
Good-Bye

B-squaders jump into action

The 1984 girls B-squad season went pretty well. The girls won over 50% of their games.

They played in an eight team Freshman tournament in Dickinson, and placed third.

The over-all performance was not as well as expected, but was satisfactory. Coach Haugland looks forward to the 1985-86 season, because several returning players will highlight the roster.

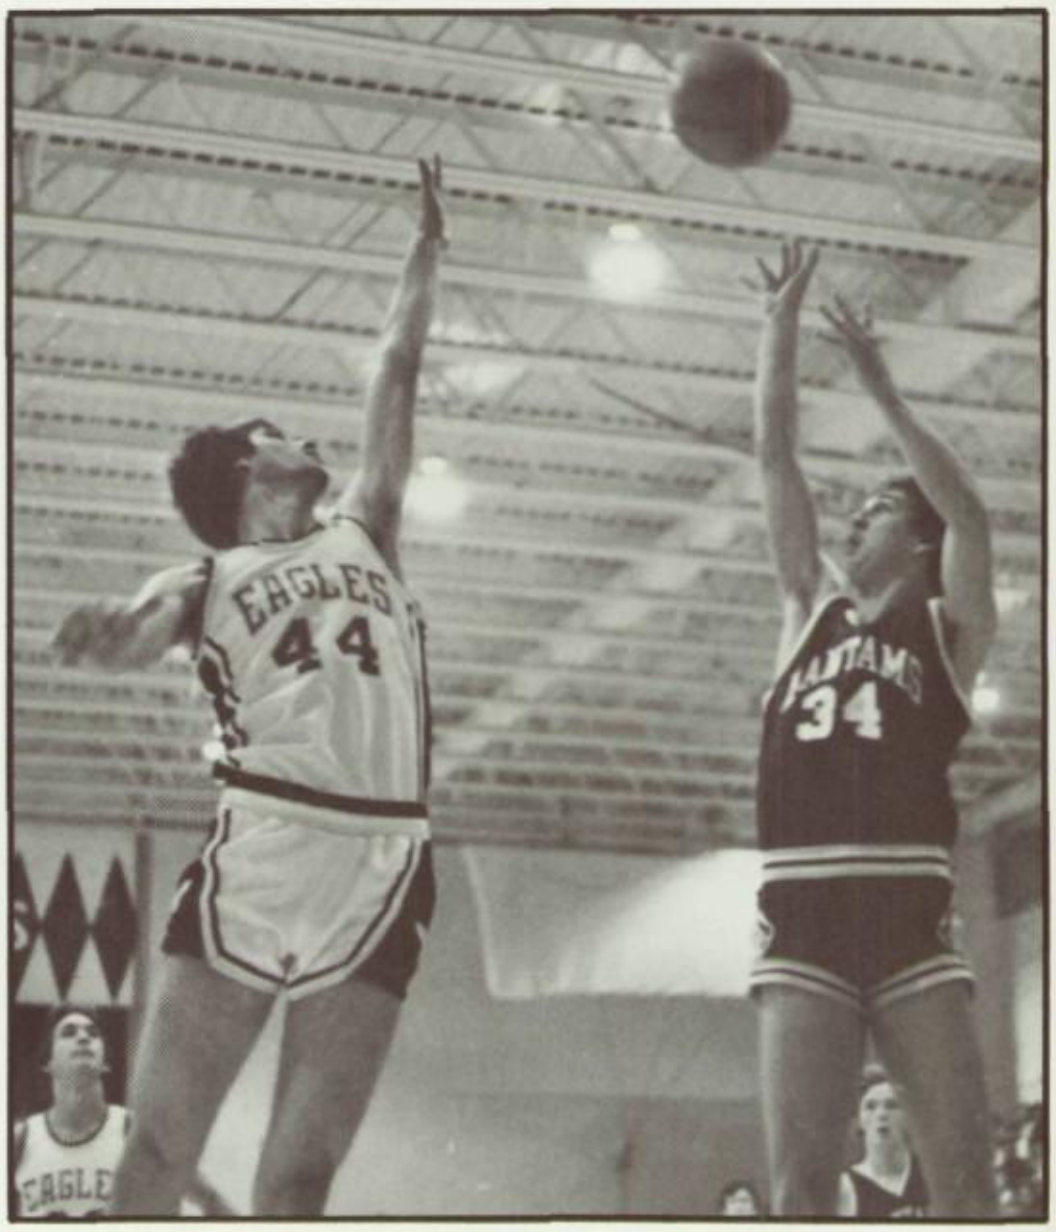
Where's God, Mike?



When I say jump, JUMP!

The 84-85 Eagles ended their season with a 12-10 won-lost record. The entire season was one of starks contrast. The Eagles would play well at times and would have some great individual performances, only to come back another night and play poorly. Coach Perdaems stated, "Inconsistent playing evidently kept our team from developing the confidence necessary to be a real contender." A saying that sums up that point is "success breeds success."

The team is losing some talented hard-working seniors, but at the same time the future for South Heart basketball can be bright. Only with year round dedication to the game of basketball will they attain their goals.

Shout it out!

The 1984-85 B-squad and Freshmen season proved to be very successful for both squads. The B squad ended with a 14-5 record, and they won the B squad tournament. Coach Peters said, "The team had definite desire, and with work on individual weaknesses, the team could show potential during next season."

The Freshmen had an outstanding season with a record of fourteen and one and won their tournament. The coach added, "If the team works hard during next season, they will set a foundation for a very salty varsity team within the next few years."

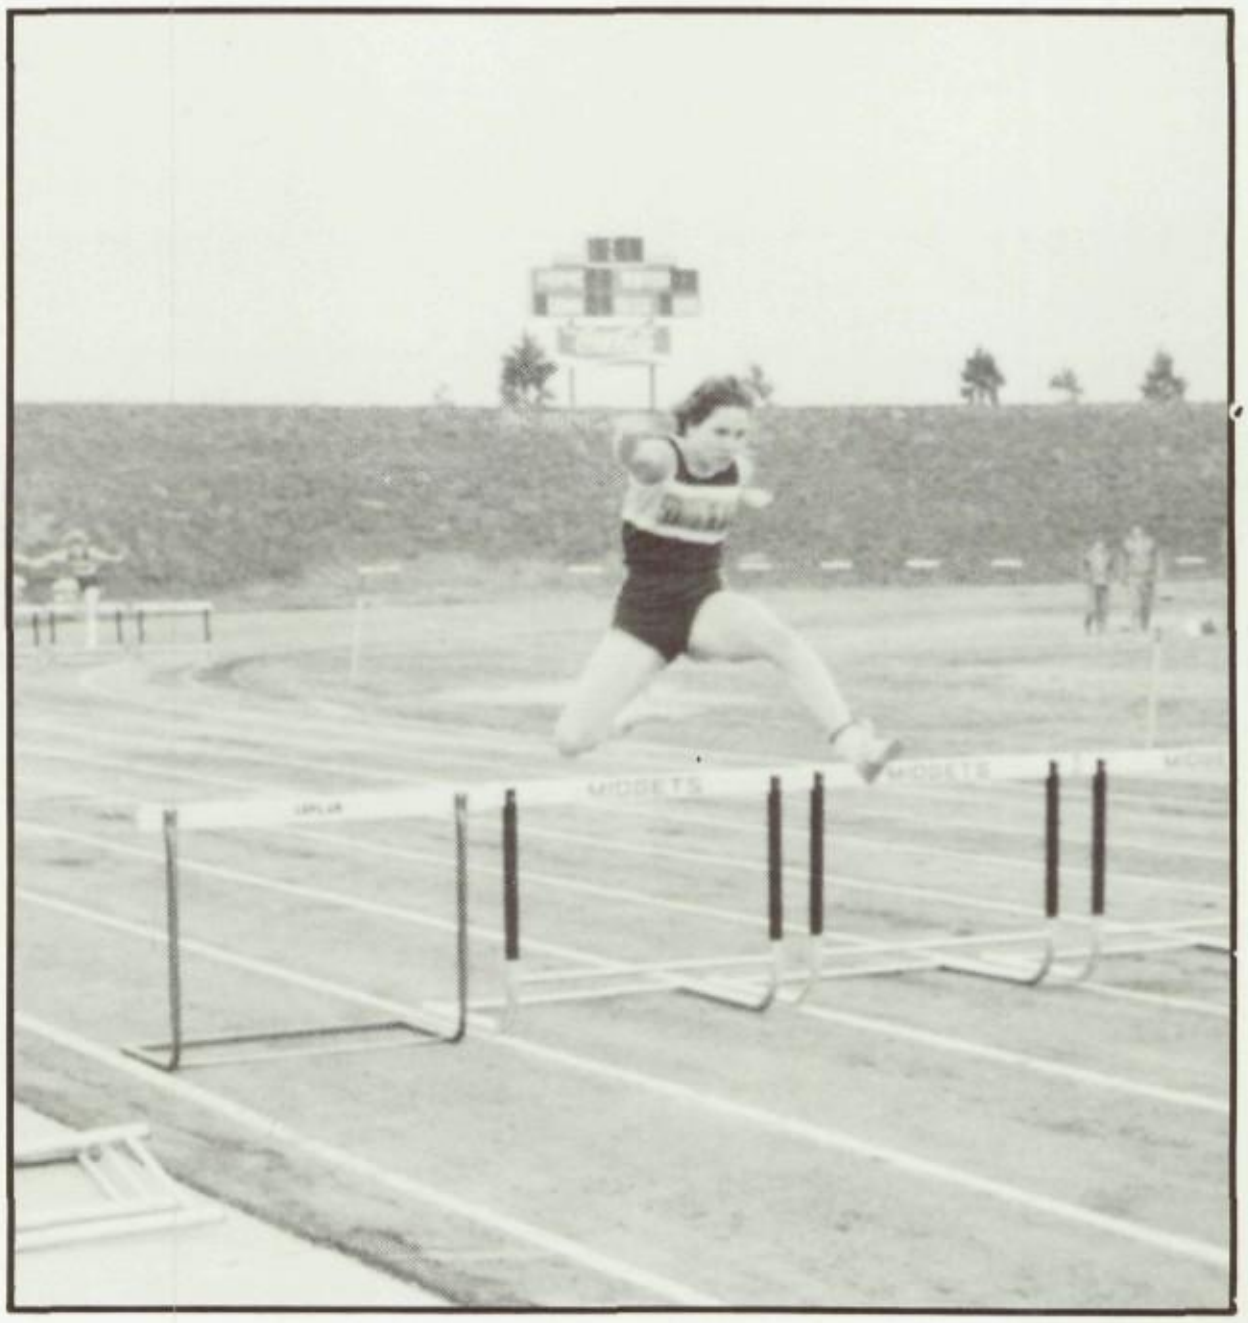
Boys are crowned Region 8 champs

This year the 1985 boys' track team has had a very successful year. This was the first year ever for South Heart to win the Region 8 track meet. Also, thirteen people qualified for the state track meet. These people were Russ Jablonsky, high jump, long jump, and the 800 m relay; Rick Jablonsky, 110 m hurdles and the 800 m relay; Gregg Zarak, 800 m relay; Mike Dorval, 800 m relay and the 110 m hurdles; Roy Krivoruchka, shot put; and Troy Anderson, Mike Volesky, John Chorne, and Paul Syverson, 3200 relay. In addition to this, three school records were broken this year. The records were the 3200 m relay, the 800 m relay, and the high jump.

Coach Hushka stated that he felt that the team had done very well, "I am very satisfied; after-all, we did win the Region 8 track meet."

Russ Jablonsky was awarded the Eagle Award and the field award for the season.



Go for it, Sue!

Nice form, DeLori.

Girls are Region 8 runners-up

The girls' track season was a very successful one. Mrs. Perdaems said, "We had an outstanding team effort at all our meets this year. The team placed in the top five each time. The Regional Track meet and the I-94 Conference meet proved to be our best effort; at these meets the girls brought home the second place trophy."

The state qualifiers were Susan Meyer, long jump and 300 m. hurdles; Sandy Ridl, 3200 m. run, and Colleen Anton, 800 m. run. Susan Meyer placed fifth in the State Meet with a jump of 17'¼".

Susan Meyer received the Outstanding Sprinter and Field Award. Sandy Ridl received the Distance Award and Hustle Award. The Eagle Award was given to Susan Meyer for her accomplishments.

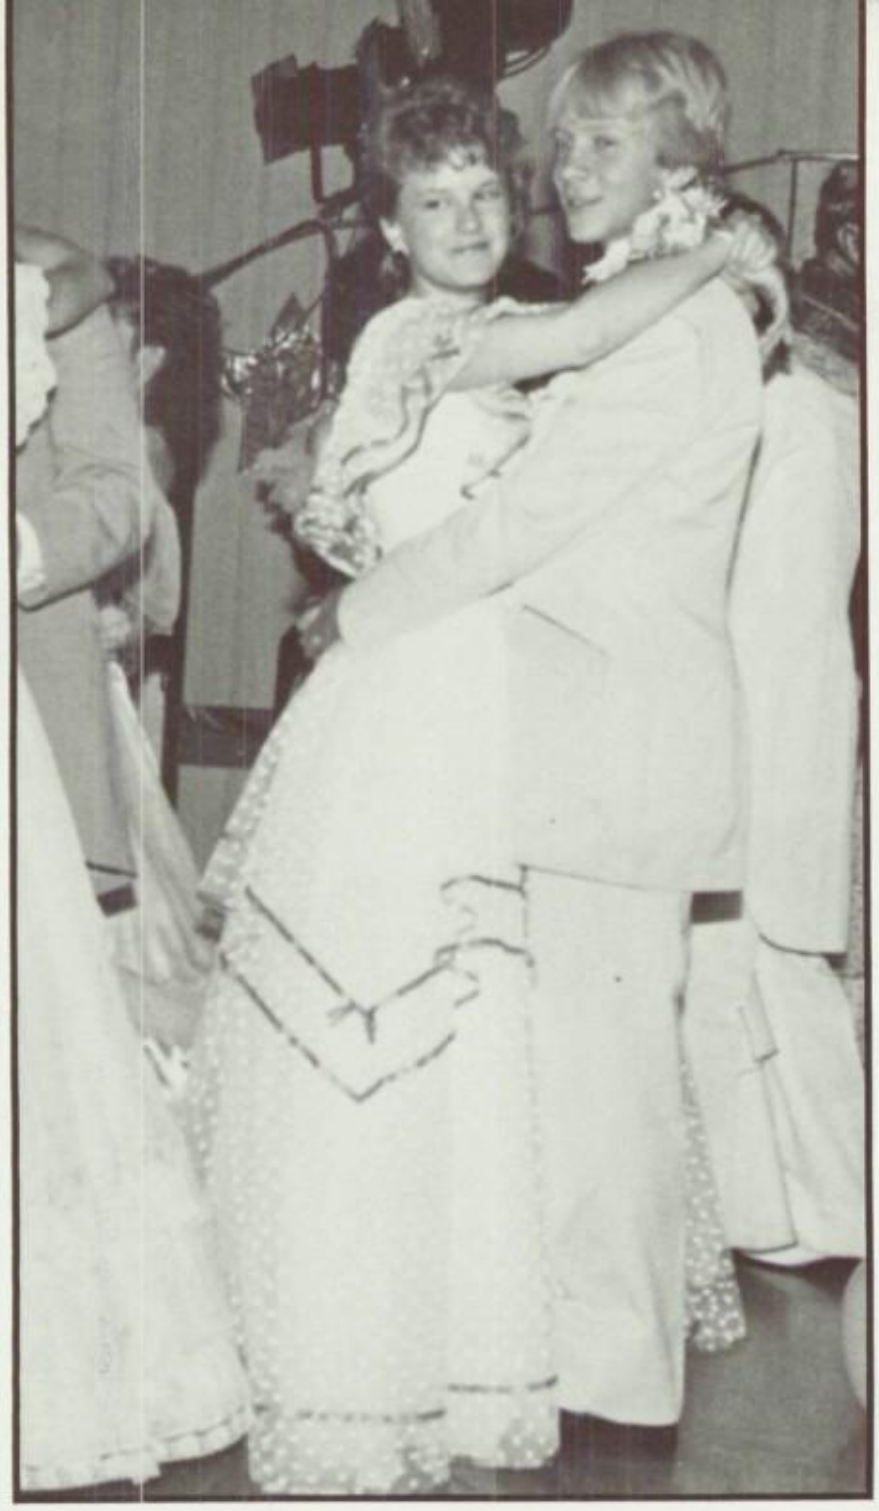
Prom night memories-85

The 1985 Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 11, at the Holiday Inn. The evening's activities started at 7 o'clock with a special dinner. After the dinner came the Grand March, followed by a romantic dance which ended the night's activities. The prom theme was "You're The Inspiration" and more than one couple found that to be true about each other during that romantic evening.

Karen Steffan (Princess' Attendant), Rick Jablosnky (Prince's Attendant), Lisa Kostelecky (Princess), Susie Splichal (Queen), Tom Zarak (King), Jon Splichal (Prince), Tessie Rambousek (Queen's Attendant), Kelly Davis (King's Attendant).



I could do this all night.

Congratulations, Susie!!

London Bridge is falling down.

Another year goes by,
Another prom is here,
A joyous smile
To others, brings a tear.
For years you have
Tread a path
From dawn to setting sun,
But now the climb has just begun.
We're very glad to know you.
We'll miss you
When you're gone,
And to the class of '85
We dedicate this prom!

Come on, balloon, break.

Juniors and Seniors visit Legislature

"Hey, today didn't turn out so bad after all."

South Heart's junior and senior classes boarded the buses early Tuesday morning on January 22nd to travel to Bismarck. During the morning they viewed the State Legislature, the capital, and the N.D. Heritage Center. In the afternoon the group attended the play Foxfire, a Guthrie Theater production, at the Municipal Auditorium.

From the theater, it was back on the bus for a trip to New Salem for the basketball game. The Eagles were victorious over the Holsteins 74 to 65.

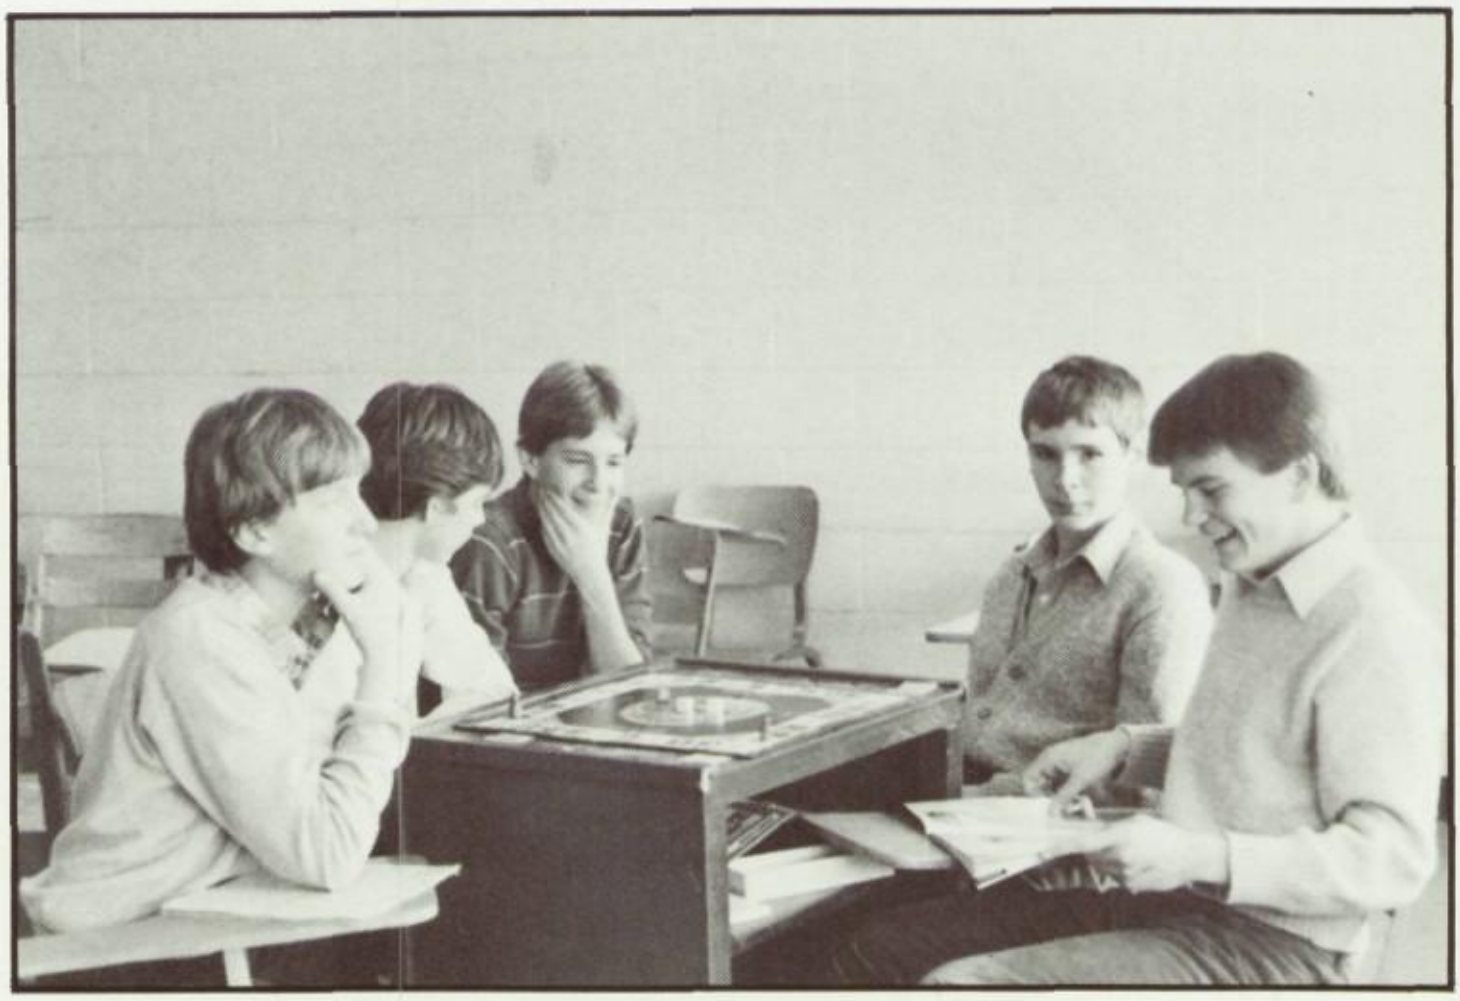
The freshmen were welcomed into high school with a "Seniors Welcome Freshmen" dance held in September.

The class actively participated in many school activities and adjusted well to the high school routine. They were the first class to have typing and driver's education as freshmen.

The year was wrapped up with the sponsoring of the "Senior Farewell" dance.



Is this the rough life, guys?

Don't pull out your hair, Debby!

As students move each year a step higher in high school, they experience more responsibilities.

Not a single junior could complain of being bored this school year. Each class member was busy with magazine and concession stand sales. These funds were raised to cover the expenses for the Junior-Senior Prom.

The juniors faced a lot of discouraging and disagreeing times. The classmates worked together and worked out their rough plans.

This year prom was held May 11th at Holiday Inn. Prior to the dance, the Junior-Senior Banquet was held.

Life

Life is a gift,
A box wrapped with silk bows
And sprinkled with gold dust.
Open it one day. . .
You won't find a gold watch,
Or a diamond ring.
Look under the tissue paper,
Go beyond the price tag
And take out the colors of reality—
Happiness, pain, sorrow, love.
Paint your own rainbow.
No one else can.

Life's Road

We learn many new lessons as each day goes by—
There are songs to sing and a few tears to cry
There are blessings to count,
happy memories, too
And sometimes disappointment in things that we do.
There are cups that one over
and years that are lean,
With bright days and dark days and long nights between.

But one choice we can make as we carry life's load—

If we look toward the sun
how it brightens the road!

Time

Time moves so quickly;
There's not a moment to spare.
The months flow by like a stream;
Tomorrow's another day to share
Why do we rush the moments
That aren't here for long?
Soon the year will be over;
Finished, ended, and gone.

Graduation

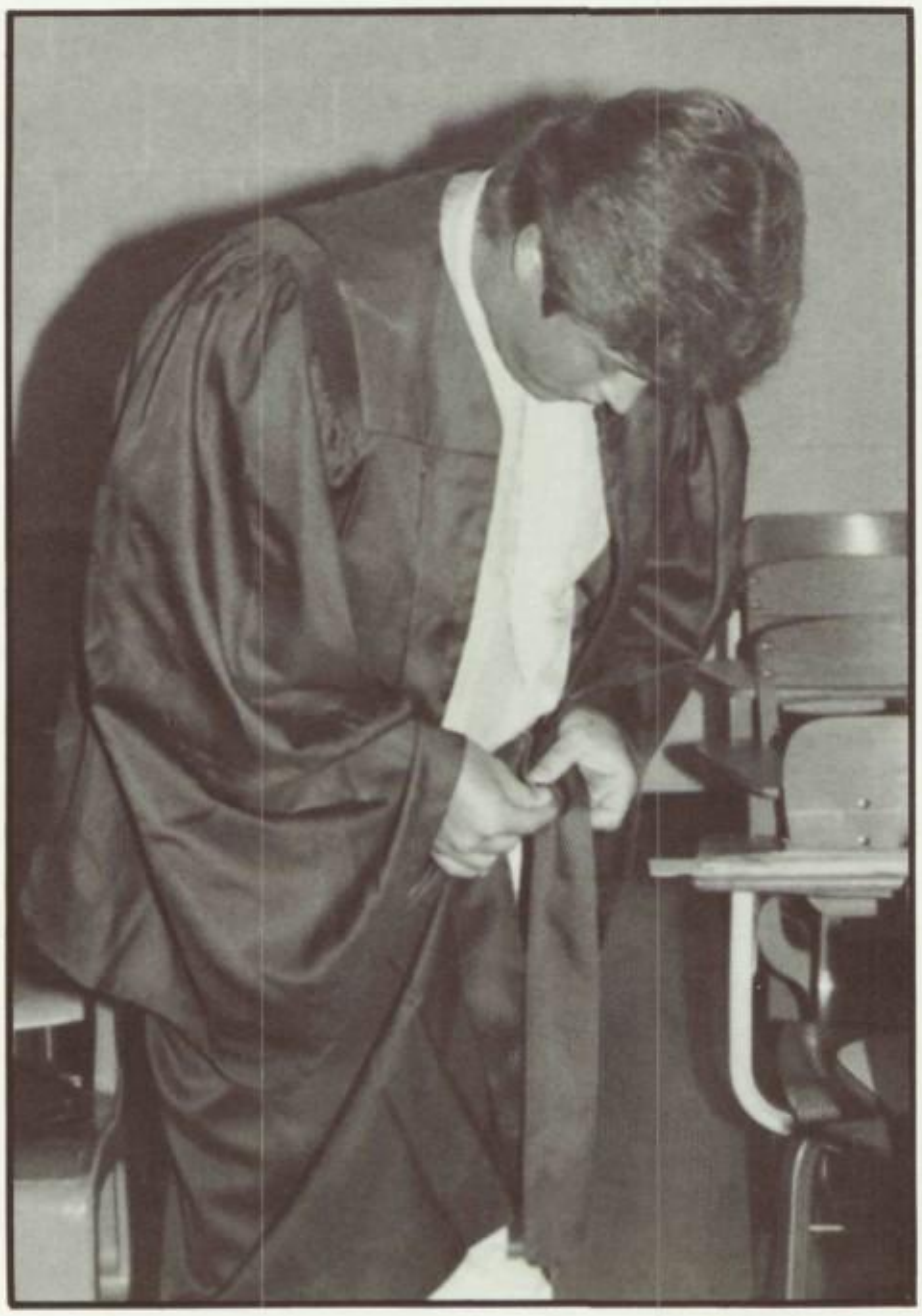
The Class of 1985 held their graduation commencement on Sunday, May 19th, at 2:00 p.m. in the South Heart High School Gym.

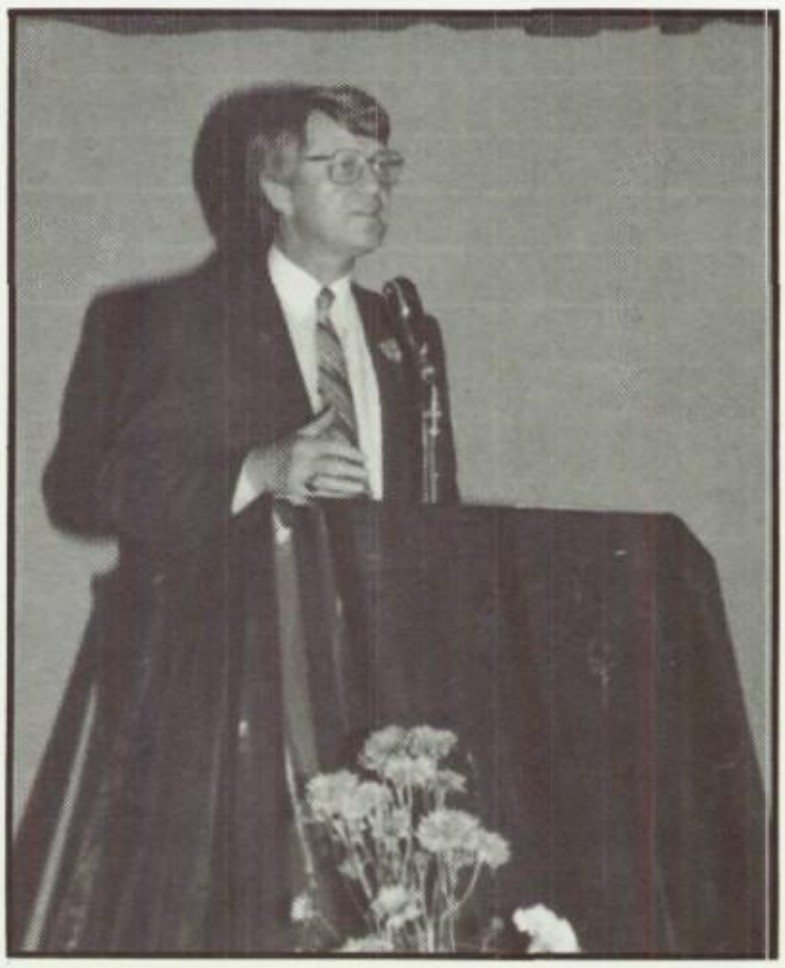
The guest speaker was Dr. Wayne Sanstead, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who based his speech on the class motto.

Awards went to Sue Meyer, Valedictorian, and Mike Dorval, Salutatorian.

The special awards went to Russ Jablonsky for the male "I Dare You" Award and Sue Meyer for the female "I Dare You" Award. The "Senior of the Year" Award went to both Russ Jablonsky and Sue Meyer.

Sue Meyer also qualified as one of only 141 scholars across the United States for the Presidential Scholarship given by Education Secretary William J. Bennett.





Seniors have a successful year

At the beginning of the year the seniors had a dance to welcome the freshmen into high school.

The seniors used their additional funds to purchase prom glasses, tickets to the play, Firefox, the picnic expenses, a $100 yearbook ad, and a yearbook for each class member.

In January the seniors attended the state legislature along with the juniors.

A project of the seniors during their last year was to research their past twelve years of school at South Heart School. The information was accumulated into a class history book for each class member.

The senior class colors were dark blue, light blue, and silver. Their class flower was a white carnation dipped in blue. The motto was: "In my hands I hold today. In my dreams I hold tomorrow. In my faith I hold forever."

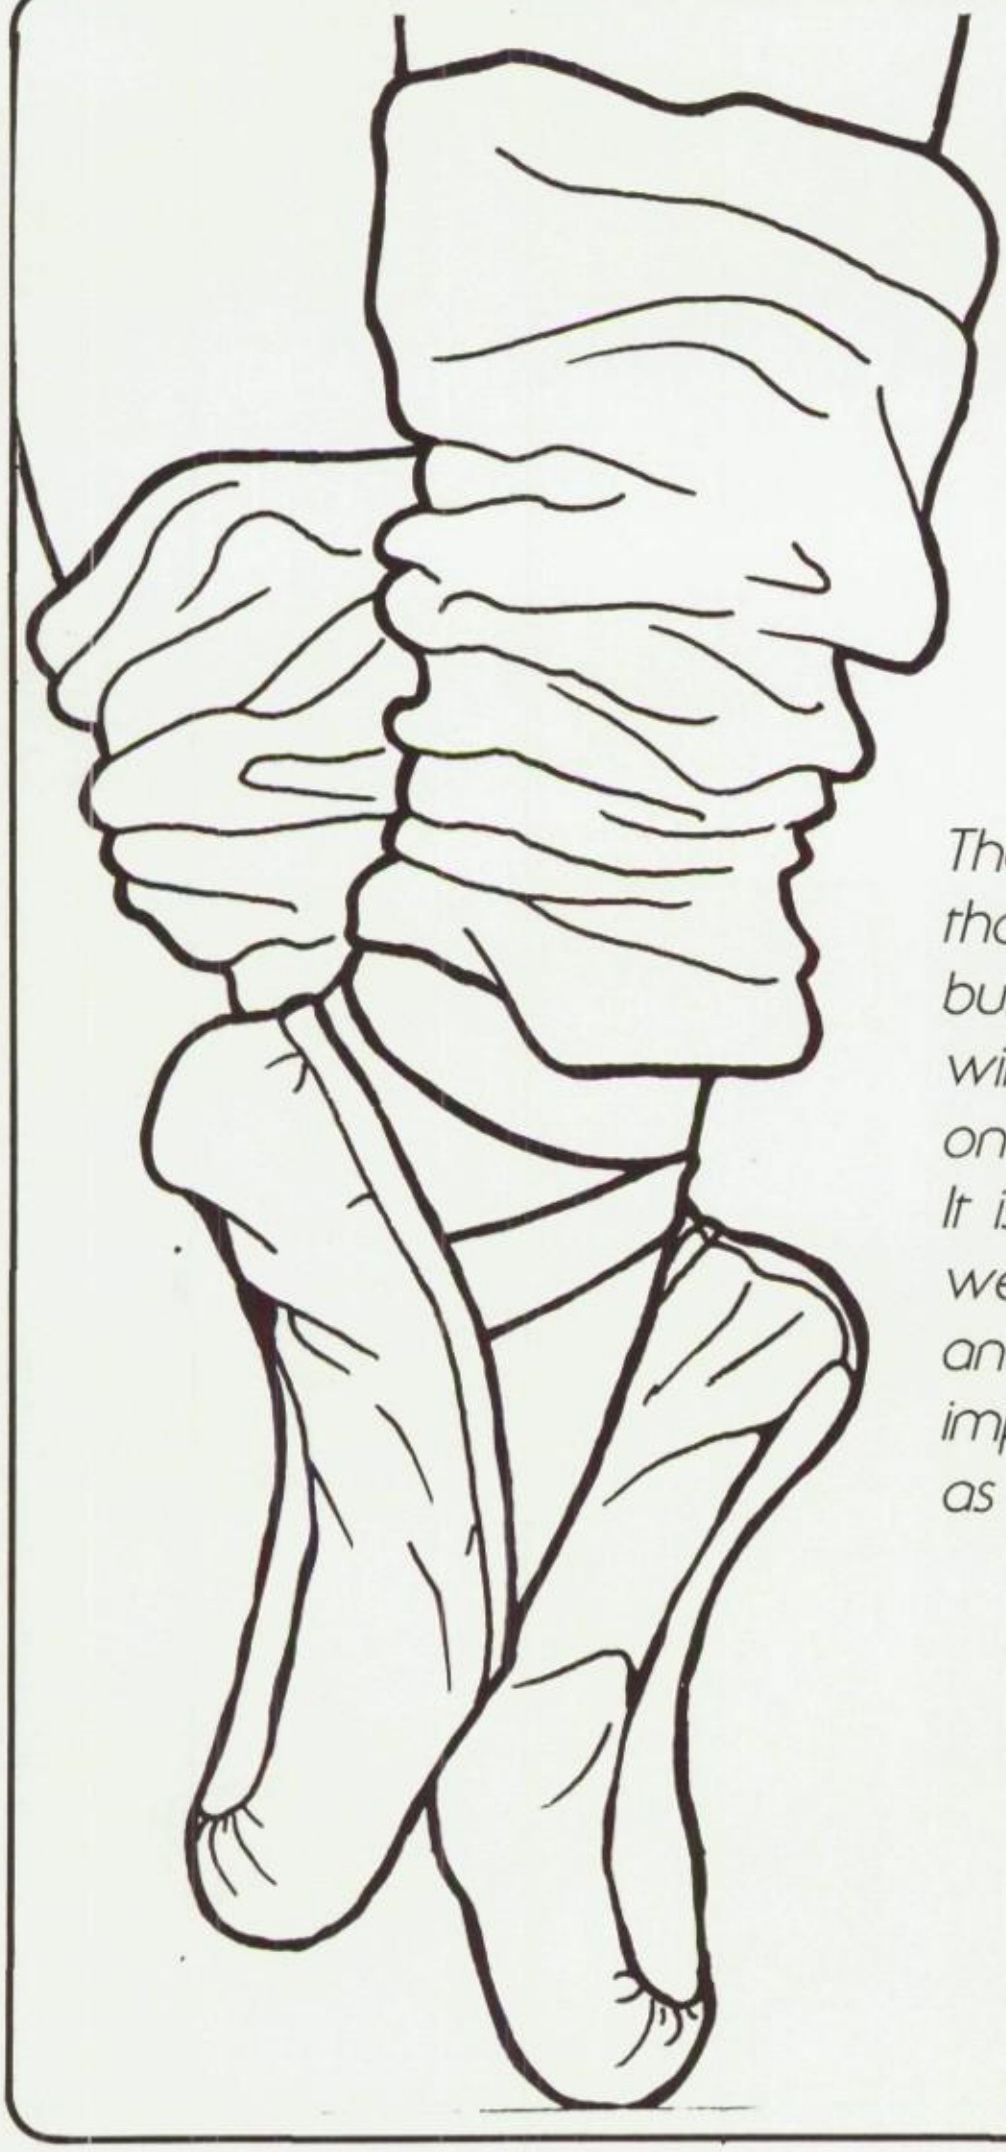
Whisper Steps



There are many people
that we meet in our lives
but only a very few will make a lasting impression on our minds and hearts.
It is these people that we will think of often and who will always remain important to us
as true friends.

Susan Polis Schutz

Memories

Memories are made of things, that happen every day.
Moments as we live them,
things we do and say.
Little bits and pieces,
of laughter mixed with tears.
Paragraphs and pages,
written through the year.
The friends we remember,
mistakes that we regret.
The ending of a love,
we never could forget.
We can't erase the sadness, or edit out the tears.
But since memories keep building,
each day can be a start
of making new and happy ones,
to stay within the heart.

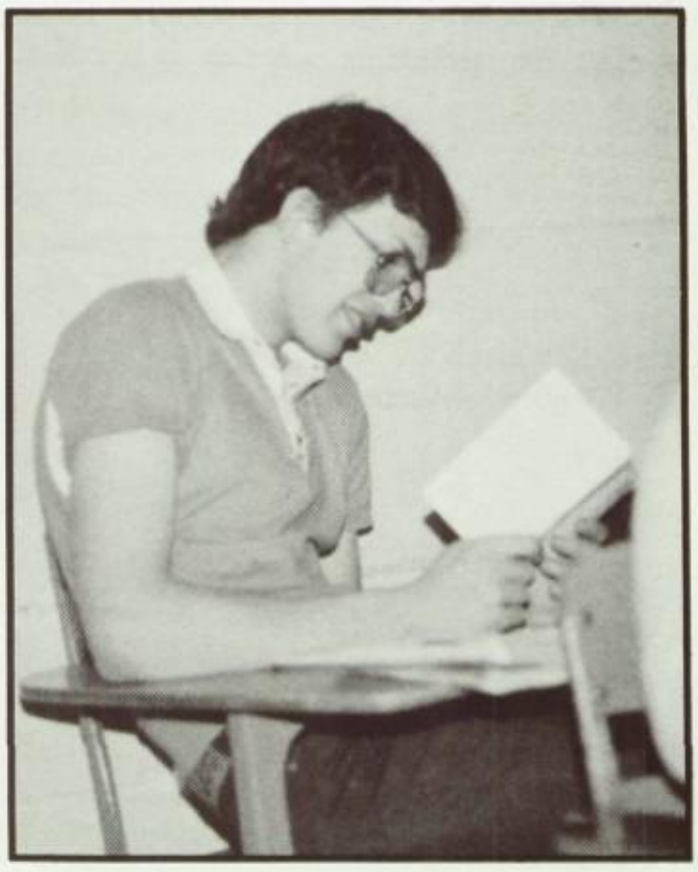
Calling Doctor Perdaems.



Are you a bookworm?

This is our history book for the 1984-85 school year. On the previous pages we have tried to trace our steps from the past year. The theme we selected was "Footprints". It is carried throughout the memory book with pictures of feet and footprints. The division pages portray our theme through the use of specific footwear worn in various activities.

We would like to thank our advisor, Mrs. Holinka, and the journalism class for their hard work and dedication. They are responsible for the production of this yearbook and for the recording of our high school memories to treasure the rest of our lives.

Footwork

What a Day!

The alarm clock goes off
At 7 o'clock.
The button on the toaster
Does not lock.
The two fried eggs
Were soft and runny,
The milk was warm,
The toast was crummy.
I ran out of the house
10 minutes late.
And, as usual,
The bus didn't wait.
I walked the distance,
Tired and worn.
When I reached the school
I saw my skirt was torn.
I walked into class,
Half an hour tardy.
The way everyone laughed
You'd think I was Laurel and Hardy!
I looked down,
To avoid the laughs,
And low and behold,
My socks didn't match!

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1985

$100

These are the Footsteps the Class of '85 plan to follow.

Rodney Zastoupil: I plan on attending college first to prepare for a career in sales, marketing, and management, and to become the best salesman or manager I can be.

Tom Zarak: I hope to attend UND-Williston and plan on going into Advertisement Speciality.

JoEllen Volesky: My main goal is to keep sight of my Christian beliefs and not sacrifice them for material wealth.

Lori Steffan: I plan to go to college, get a good job, get married and have a family.

Susie Splichal: I hope to step into a stable and satisfying career and live a full and happy life.

Mark Schmidt: I hope to follow the footsteps or reality in all my worldly quests and to develop cherished memories, not dreaded realities.

Janell Schmidt: In my life my footsteps will be as individual as I am, and I plan on having a successful career, a wonderful husband and a fantastic marriage.

Jeri Saetz: I want to look forward to the tomorrows and remember the yesterdays.

Marilyn Sadowsky: I plan to go to college and obtain a degree in business.

Tessie Rambousek: After college I hope to attain a job in my chosen career of law and make the best out of everything that life has to offer.

Jackie Rambousek: I plan to go to college, pursue a good job in my career choice, and live life to its fullest.

Laurie Privrarsky: I would like to fid a good paying job this summer, possibly in Arizona, attend college majoring in Business Administration, and most importantly, I hope to be happy with what I do in the future.

Eric Nelson: I hope to follow the footsteps that will make me successful, but still liked and respected by my peers.

Susan Meyer: I plan to go to college and work to reach my goals in life, and then be happy with the person I've become.

Wendy Kuylen: I want to erase my faults from the years past, create new ideas, and reach different goals for the years ahead.

Steve Kuntz: I plan to go to college and study diesel mechanics, later start farming, set up my own diesel shop and get married.

Sharon Kuchynski: I don't want to follow anybody's footsteps; instead I want to have a successful career in advertising and a wonderful husband and family.

Gordy Krance: I plan to go to college at UND-Williston and become an auto mechanic, and then work as a mechanic and do some farming.

Jerry Karsky: I plan to go to Moorhead State University, major in accounting, and then hope to obtain my B.A. and pass the CPA test to become a licensed accountant.

Russ Jablonsky: I hope to follow the footsteps of a good job, a happy family and a long, healthy life.

Debby Hushka: I plan on walking backwards so I will be able to walk in my own footsteps.

Linda Hurt: The footsteps I hope to follow are to go to college from four to six years, get my major major in music, and then start teaching.

Pat Frank: I want to go to college for two yecrs, learn to be myself, and settle down.

Brian Farnsworth: I plan to join the Army after I graduate, then go to college for auto and diesel mechanics and become either a mechanic or an independent truck driver.

Mike Dorval: I'm not going to follow anyone's footsteps; I plan on flying everywhere I go.

Kelly Davis: I plan to follow my own footsteps, and hopefully they will set an example for other people to follow in the future.

Cherry Burns: I want to remember that the gifts I have re only mine on loan . . . I need to work to accept, honor and appreciate them.

Sandra Bezdicek: I hope to be successful at a job I like, to have a loving family of my own, and to be happy.

Troy Anderson: I want to follow my own footsteps, and not someone else's in life.

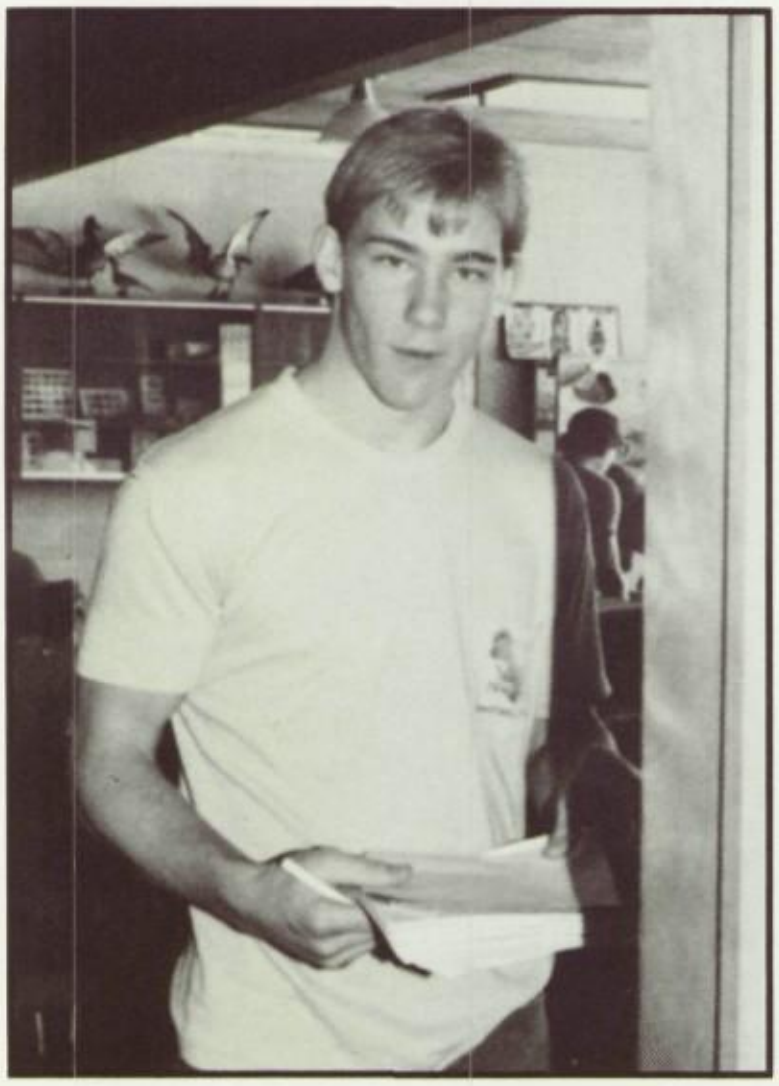
Thank You Patrons



Strong people make as many mistakes as weak people. The difference is that strong people admit their mistakes . . . laugh at them and . . . learn from them. That is how they became strong.
